

COMMONWEALTH HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

Following the defeat of mandatory challenger DILLON CARMAN last Friday 1st December when unsuccessfully defending his Canadian Championship, his Commonwealth mandatory status has been withdrawn by the CBC Board.

Previous CBC Bulletins including the last one of 27th November, putting out the Heavyweight Championship for negotiations/purse bids are now null and void.

Champion LENROY THOMAS of Jamaica has still to make a defence prior to the end of March 2018 against any contender subject to approval by the CBC.

SIMON BLOCK
Hon Secretary